As you read in the Parish Council Minutes last Sunday, the council is discussing options for the carpet in church, especially the side aisles that are stained from occasional water leakage from the a/c units. One option is to leave the carpet under the pews but remove all carpet in the aisles and around the altar. Suggestions may be made to any of the council members whose names, phone numbers & email addresses are listed on the bulletin board in the vestibule.

From Karen & Donald Binz: Thank you to the Compassionate Cooks group who prepared the BBQ and Baked Beans dinner for us. The Sun Chips and macaroni salad really set it off. Everything was wonderful, and the cheese cake with strawberries on top is Donald's favorite. Everything was really wonderful and greatly appreciated! Thanks also for the beautiful card, phone calls and prayers – especially the prayers. Please continue to pray as I am not out of the woods yet.

From RJ & Christa Nehus, Chance & Aidan: Thank you so much for the Compassionate Cooks meal that was provided after Miles was born. It was delicious and nice not to have to worry about cooking. Miles is such a blessing to our family and we are so glad he is finally here!

If your family would like to carry up the gifts at weekend Masses but have not been on the list, contact the church office so your name can be added. New ministers are always welcome!

"And if a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand." (Mark 3:25)

Do our parish ministries complement each other or do they compete. Is our parish "one Body of Christ"? The goal of all parish ministries is to bring people to Christ. All parish work should glorify God's name.

Thanks to all who serve in the many ministries here at St. Joseph's: musicians, lectors, servers, gift bearers, Eucharistic ministers, communion to shut-ins, ushers, committee and group members. It takes many generous Stewards for parish life to flow smoothly.
